NAPA/SOLANO AREAS RECYCLING MARKET DEVELOPMENT ZONE

ZONE INFORMATION

The Napa/Solano Areas Recycling Market Development Zone (RMDZ) includes the South Napa Waste Management Authority, the County of Napa, the City of Napa, and the City of Vallejo in Solano County. The South Napa Waste Management Authority is the administrative lead agency for the zone. The zone comprises a major wine-producing area of California and is also a tourist destination.

PROGRAM INFORMATION

California Recycling Market Development Zones are designated by the Integrated Waste Management Board. The Board offers low-interest loans up to $1 million, technical assistance on financing strategies, and assistance in marketing zones nationally and internationally. For more information on this program and other market development programs, contact the Board's Recycling Business Assistance Branch at (916) 255-1000.

TARGET MATERIALS

Materials targeted for the Napa/Solano Areas RMDZ include, but are not limited to, mixed paper, compostables, high-density polyethylene (HDPE), and mixed plastics. The zone hopes to attract companies producing molded paper, cellulose insulation, molded plastic, and mulch, which could find ready markets locally.

INFRASTRUCTURE

Excellent rail transport and interstate 80 connect the zone to San Francisco, Sacramento, and Reno, providing access to extra feedstock as well as shipping of products to major market areas. The area has ample industrial and business parks for recycling-based business development.

INCENTIVES

The Napa/Solano RMDZ will assist potential businesses with financing, site selection, permit assistance, adequate feedstock supplies, and worker training. Some areas of the zone offer joint venture development, industrial development bond financing and additional enterprise zone benefits.
